TAMS ANNOUNCES MEDAL DESIGN CONTEST

Have you ever had the urge to create an original medal design? If so, now is your chance. Each year TAMS has an assemblage medal struck for its annual meeting, and over the years these attractive pieces have become a popular collecting specialty. On one side of each year's medal is a design relating to the city in which the meeting is being held, while the other side depicts the TAMS logo.

To stimulate interest in the series and their design, Medal Chairman Al Baber has established a design contest. The member submitting the winning design will be presented a set of that year's medals. Following are the contest rules:

1. The design shall be presented on plain paper, 8½x11 inch size, within a 6 to 8 inch diameter circle.
2. The subject matter's main theme should be depicted as large as the encompassing circle will allow. Supplementary wording can then be placed in any or all remaining open areas.
3. The subject may be presented as a photograph, decal, or pencilled art layout, supported with or without pictures. Formal art is not necessary.
4. The subject matter of the design should be relevant to the Host City.
5. Do not include your initials on the design. These will be added after the judging.
6. The reverse side of the medal will be the TAMS logo, as on all previous medals.
7. You may submit an explanation of your design.
8. You may submit up to three (3) different designs.
9. If your entry is of private or commercial subject matter, written permission for use must be obtained from the appropriate authority. If permission is not granted, the design will be disqualified.
10. All entries must be in the hands of the Medal Chairman by 31 January 1993. Judging shall be by members appointed by the Chairman.
11. The winning design becomes the property of the Token and Medal Society. All others will be returned, on request.
12. The Medal Committee reserves the right to modify the winning design to meet the requirements of the minting process.
13. The competition is open to all TAMS members in good standing.
14. The winner will be awarded one set of the medals, at the TAMS banquet.

As stated in the rules, designs for next year's medal must be submitted by 31 January 1993, so now is the time to get started. The 1993 meeting will be held in Baltimore, Maryland, and that city should offer many design possibilities. Completed designs, or correspondence regarding the contest, should be sent to Medal Chairman Al Baber, 611 Oakwood Way, El Cajon, CA 92021. Good luck!

CHINESE DINING HALL TOKENS

by Bruce W. Smith

To an avid collector of Chinese tokens, living in China for a year meant a unique opportunity to search for tokens. That is what I did during 1988-1989 while studying Chinese language at Zhengzhou University in Henan province (north central China). Though I visited quite a number of cities, I found no old tokens. The only metal tokens I found are those for use in pinball and video games. There are at least ten different hard plastic ferry tokens in use and a few other kinds of hard plastic tokens.

I wasn't disappointed, however, when I discovered that tokens are widely used in dining halls. My first exposure to these tokens came at the university itself. Within the campus, all the foreigners live in a separate fenced compound which has its own dining hall. Chinese and western dishes were available at various prices, to be paid for with plastic tokens called "fan piao." The set used in our dining hall consisted of rectangular flexible plastic pieces in values of 1, 2, 5 jiao and 1 yuan. This is a generic set — that is, a basic token without any indication of the issuing authority.

Larger dining halls have special tokens printed, which bear the name of the factory, business, school, or government department which issued it. Smaller dining halls use generic tokens (all of which have blank backs) on which they rubber stamp their name. Among the hundreds of fan piao I used at Zhengzhou University, less than a dozen pieces had actually been rubber stamped.

Ordinarily unstamped piao would not be used, because if one found the printer who produced them, they could be purchased for a small fraction of their face value and used to cheat the dining hall. Apparently the university believed foreign students could never find the source of the tokens. In my case they were wrong, for I bought nearly one hundred different kinds of fan piao from print shops in various cities in China.

Outside our foreign compound, I found that the use of dining hall tokens is extremely widespread. It is possible that every factory, store, school, government agency, or group with a dining hall uses them. In my collection I have non-generic tokens issued by high schools, colleges, research and planning institutions, auto and other factories, banks, hospitals, military factories, stores, post offices, railroads, telephone offices, airports, hotels, shipyards, textile mills, and government offices.

There are three different kinds of dining hall tokens. Fan piao (literally "meal token") are for purchasing meals or prepared grain dishes. Some are denominated in money (1 fen through 1 yuan being most common), while others are denominated in weights (usually 1 liang through 1 jin or 50 to 500 grams). Cai piao (literally "vegetable token") are used to pay for cooked vegetables and are usually in weights (1 liang through 5 liang). Finally there are kai shui piao or kai piao (literally "boiled water token") which are usually denominated in very small amounts (1 or 2 fen), or have no denomination at all. This kind of token would be used to buy hot water for making tea or instant noodles.

These tokens are mainly used to eliminate the need for dining hall staff to handle actual money, or to keep money on hand to make change. Workers who use the dining hall buy a supply of tokens from time to time from a company cashier. In some cases, tokens are used to make small loans to tide workers over until the next payday.

There is another, similar, kind of token, which may be labeled "fan piao" or "dai jin quan" (literally "token certificate") or "chang bi" (literally "factory money"), but which comes in values that seem too high for use in a dining hall. The denominations usually run from 1 to 10 yuan, but I have examples as high as 100 and 500 yuan (although these are probably salesmen's samples). The average urban pay in China is only about 60 yuan a month. 500 yuan (over U.S. $100) is nearly a year's pay. I don't know how these tokens are used. At a print shop in Kaifeng I bought a generic set of these tokens in values from 5 jiao (half a yuan) to 10 yuan.

All of the dining hall tokens I have seen are rectangular or square in shape. The kai piao are often vertical. Most are printed on flexible plastic of various colors, but I also have examples printed on paper and cardboard. Some are embossed on vinyl. One example in my collection is printed on laminated wood.

Most fan piao have crude stock designs of food, food producing animals or plants, beverages, or city scenes. Cai piao usually portray vegetables, while kai piao usually show a thermos bottle (a common sight in China). More unusual designs include pandas, tropical fish, cars and trucks, pagodas, trains, and bridges. One of the most interesting sets I have seen is issued by Shanghai Volkswagen. Each value has the VW logo and a picture of the car they produce. Paper and cardboard pieces usually have no design.

The widespread use of dining hall tokens seems to have begun in the 1950s. That was a time when communes were being formed in the countryside, and collectives in the cities. Chinese society was restructured around the work place. Large work units provided their own housing, shops, child care, schools, and dining halls.

The work unit also supplied each person's monthly ration coupons. (From the 1950s to the 1980s many items, including food, were rationed. One had to use the appropriate coupon to buy even such basics as rice, bread, and cloth. Today some coupons are still used, but in the presence of free markets they have become the equivalent of our food stamps — an authorization for the poor to buy food at a subsidized price.)

The earliest non-military fan piao in my collection is from 1959. The years 1959 through 1961 were a time of famine in China. At least ten million people died of hunger, largely due to Mao Tse-tung's abortive Great Leap Forward and other political campaigns. Most dining hall tokens are undated. The plastic ones which are dated are nearly all in the 1980s. I suspect that paper and cardboard tokens were used prior to the 1980s and have largely disappeared now. The current non-biodegradable tokens will last a long time.

Price wise, dining hall tokens are quite affordable. The generic issues sell for around twenty-five cents, while the attributable tokens go for about a dollar. There are nearly a hundred different generic tokens on the market in the United States. I know this because I obtained all of them in China and sold them to U.S. dealers. As far as I know, no one else has put any of these tokens into the U.S. market.

In China I bought one bundle of each type token I saw. Some bundles contained one hundred pieces, but most contained two hundred. Therefore, the maximum number available in this country now is only two hundred of each kind.

The non-generic tokens, however, can not be obtained in quantity unless one convinces a factory or other issuer to sell them, and even then one will have to pay at least face value. A 1 yuan or 1 jin token would cost about twenty cents plus postage (plus the time to negotiate the sale). My collection includes several hundred different non-generic dining hall tokens, all obtained one at a time through friends in China. Collecting this series is not expensive, but it is certainly challenging.

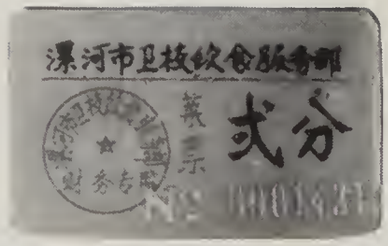
In closing I should mention the only known metal dining hall token. It was issued in the 1950s or early 1960s by a factory in Lhasa, Tibet! The uniface piece is overstruck on Tibetan copper coins of the late 1940s. Between six and ten pieces have turned up so far, and they are bringing about three hundred dollars each.

TERMS COMMONLY FOUND ON DINING HALL TOKENS

Fan Piao	饭票	Xue Yuan (college or technical institute)	学院
Cai Piao	菜票	Dai Jin Quan (token certificate)	代金券
Kai Piao	开票	Chang Bi (factory money)	厂币
Liang (a Chinese ounce)	两	Sheng (province)	省
Jin (a Chinese pound)	斤	Shi (city)	市
Ge (gram)	克
Zhong Xue (high school)	中学
Da Xue (college)	大学

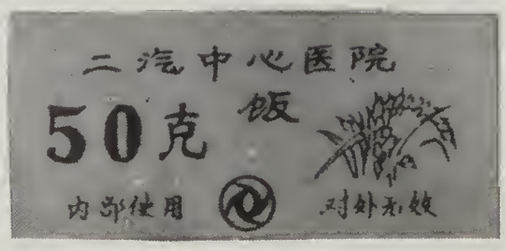
The heading of these tokens often begins with the name of the province or city in which they were issued. That place name would appear before the word Sheng or Shi.

50 gram token from a printing works in Guangzhon (Canton) city.

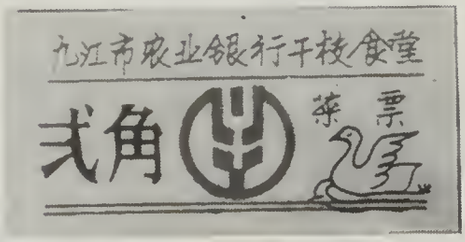


Food and drink office of the Luohe (Henan province sanitation training school (?); 2 fen token with serial number.

Jin Zhou Vocational High School; 500 grams, dated 1989.

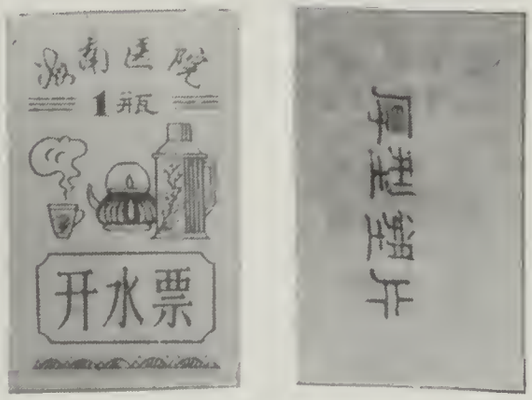


50 gram token issued by the Hospital of Number 2 Auto Works (Shiyan, Hubei).



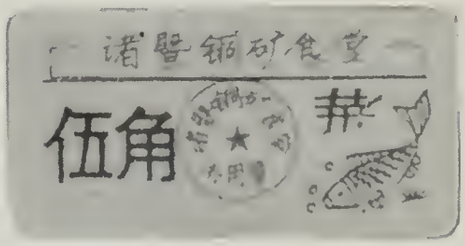
Agricultural Bank of Jiujiang city; two jiao (20 fen).

Shanghai Volkswagen Factory token; 50 grams.

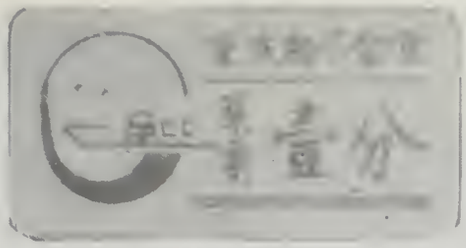


Hunan Hospital (probably at the capital); a "kai shui piao" for one container of boiled water.

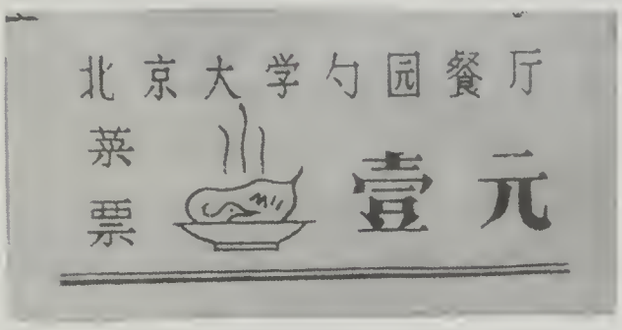
Hangzhou (Zhejiang province) Communications College; 500 grams.



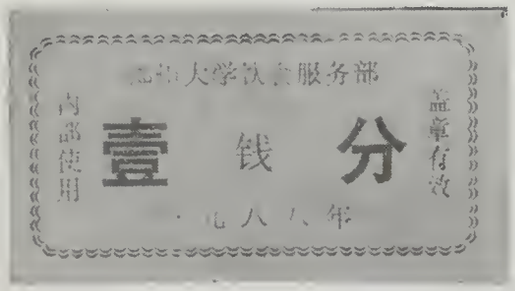
Zhuji Copper Mine in Zhejiang province; value is 5 jiao (50 fen).



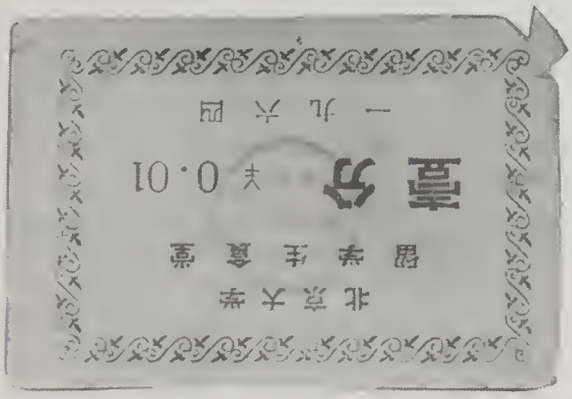
1 fen (1 cent) token from Chong zing (Sichman) shipyard.



The author stayed at the Beijing University "Shou ynan" (guest house) in April 1989 and used this type of token in the dining hall. The denomination is 1 yuan (100 fen). This dining hall is for foreigners, and therefore the prices are higher.



Zhengzhou University (Henan province) food and drink department 1 fen cardboard token, dated 1988. This type was used by the Chinese students; foreign students used plastic tokens.



Beijing University foreign students dining hall cardboard 1 fen token dated 1964.

Error token, missing design of fish in bowl and also missing the value. This is a generic piece for 5 fen (used in Luohe, Henan).

FRANKLIN MINT CALENDAR

The obverse of the 1993 annual calendar medal from the Franklin Mint features the Celestial Symphony — an astral map of the heavens in the style of Old World parchment renderings. The medal's reverse shows the 1993 calendar framed by the celestial legends of the constellations. The calendar art medal is offered in both solid bronze and solid sterling silver. In bronze, the medal is priced at $55 plus shipping and handling: the silver version sells for $375 plus shipping and handling. Orders may be placed by calling The Franklin Mint toll-free at 1-800 THE MINT, extension HOLIDAY.

Other recent releases from The Franklin Mint include four 1992 holiday greeting card medals, struck in sterling silver. The set includes the following proof medals:

1. "Season's Greetings," depicting a young girl placing a star on top of her Christmas tree.
2. "Peace," portraying two children in a joyful embrace.
3. "Happy Hanukkah," depicting a young boy lighting a menorah.
4. "Rejoice," portraying a child in an angelic holiday costume.

THE PRODUCTION OF MY FAMILY'S MEDAL

by Frank Jesse Denney

This paper relates to the details surrounding the conception, design, and production of a medal celebrating the centennial of the birth of Milo Denney.

I knew the first task was to obtain as many facts as possible concerning the person to be honored. I considered all the things I personally could recall about my father and put them together with what the other members of the family could remember and, with the purely documentary items such as birth date, location, etc, itemized them in list form. Then I considered what best method could be used to display these in a fairly small format, half-dollar, dollar or perhaps even up to three inch size. Starting with perhaps twenty items in the list, it immediately became obvious that only seven or eight of them could be shown on the medal. Therefore I needed to "rank" the items and pick the top few. This was the toughest part — putting the most information in the fewest words — but I finally settled on eight items.

I had laid out designs for "wooden dollars" which marked some of the various family reunions we have had, but I had no experience with medals. However, being a medals collector and having studied many great (and some lessor) medals in photographs and also by handling them, I envisioned what I considered to be an appropriate way to display most of the events or characteristics of my father's life. His life was pretty much an open book, so what better display method could be asked for than a "Book of Life." So there it was, with the birth and death dates and locations on the circumference, and the other items within the pages of the book; the medal "designed itself!"

I put this design on paper in a very rudimentary way and sent it around to my brothers and sisters. I called each of them after a few days and received varying degrees of agreement on the design and content. I had also contacted the people at Medallic Art Company in Sioux Falls, South Dakota and made some initial inquiries to be sure that I could get final design, engraving, and coining work done there on the small scale I was contemplating. I also determined that they could do the bronze strike and the antiquing. I knew they did that kind of work, since I had ordered their calendar medals in the past. Now it was just a matter of determining the cost of each of the tasks they were to perform.

Although the cost of the engraving was very reasonable, I had almost decided prior to discussions that I would only have one side engraved and would try to get a reasonable rate for the use of some kind of "stock" die for the other side (I still haven't decided which is the obverse and reverse on this medal). The stock die I chose was a tree, with a bird and an apple in the tree. A small circle near the tree portrays an eagle and proclaims "God bless America," which I thought was perfect for this type of medal (coincidentally, my father also had a large orchard, so it really did fit in). I could have chosen a design celebrating the quincentennial of the discovery of America by Columbus, but opted not to celebrate two things on the same medal.

By the time I was ready to make a second call to my family, I had a rough idea of the costs and could tell them it would be about $100 for each of them. I decided early on that I would absorb the cost for the design/engraving, mostly so I could get them to "buy in," since most of them are retired (and after all, it was my idea, and they were being asked to "go along"). Five of the six agreed not only that it was a good design, but that they would pay a share. Some wanted extra silver medals struck for their children so I took orders and, allowing for a few extras, obtained a good rate from Medallic Art for thirty silver one ounce "proof" medals and 100 antiqued bronze medals (see the accompanying table for details of the costs involved).

The people at Medallic Art said it would be around the first of June when the medals would be struck. My request to witness the initial strike was granted, and the company also offered to give me a tour of their facilities. I was really in "seventh heaven" at this announcement and arranged to be called by the customer service and marketing representative, Ms. Debbie Deutsch, who had been handling the arrangements for the design, etc.

Ms. Deutsch called on 9 June to tell me the striking would take place the 11th, around three P.M., and asked if I could be there. I made arrangements to be off work that day, and drove the 185 miles from Omaha to Sioux Falls. Arriving at the Medallic Art facilities somewhat earlier than the appointed time, I was informed that Mr. Robert Hoff, the firm's president, would take me on a tour of the facilities. Mr. Hoff is a very busy man, as are most corporation officers, and yet he was taking his valuable time to give a "small potatoes" customer a personal tour; now I was in "eighth heaven!"

We went almost directly to the area where the striking was to take place, and after watching the first strike of the medal in each of the two metals, we toured the remainder of the plant. I have been to all of the coining facilities of the U.S. Mint, but there I could only view from a distance, often on a balcony. Not so here. Being so close to each process, I felt as part of the operation — from the artist with modelling clay to the engraver with the manual tracing machine and the computerized design aids, to watching the magnificent Janvier reducing machines, the giant extruders, the annealing oven with its valuable load of silver ingots, and on and on.

Mr. Hoff showed me the tremendous "morgue" of "die shells" and dies. I think he said there were more than 15,000 dies there, and shelves and shelves of die shells (he corrected me when I called them "galvanos," noting that technology is no longer employed). He explained that they were re-inventorying the shells and dies, and moving the dies from their "floor" storage to shelves for protection and improved access. There was still more to be seen in the tool and die shop, which contained some very sophisticated computer driven equipment and some familiar lathes and mills. The metal preparation and the antiquing areas were other stops on out tour, which consumed nearly an hour.

When we returned to the office area Mr. Hoff presented me with a key-holder with the familiar Medallic Art logo. I attempted to express my appreciation for the tour, which meant so much to me. By this time the medal striking for my father's commemorative was complete and they were delivered, all packaged in "poly" bags and boxes, to the reception area where we waited

Time passed quickly on my drive back to Omaha, as I was very anxious to show the results to my immediate family. They were as pleased as I was at the result. In 1994 we plan to do another medal of the same type to honor my mother, who in our eyes was a "great lady," just as my father was a "great man."

THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY CLUB MEDAL STRUCK

The West Chester, Pennsylvania Coin Club has issued a medal to commemorate its thirtieth anniversary. Struck in bronze and silver, the obverse of the 39mm medal depicts Columbus' flagship, the Santá Maria, in full sail on a calm sea. The words 30TH ANNIVERSARY appear above the vessel and the date, 1992, is below.

The medal's reverse features the club's logo: McCreadys' covered bridge in its nostalgic setting of West Nottingham Township where it once spanned Black Run Creek. Above are the words WEST CHESTER COIN CLUB / FOUNDED 1962, and below is WEST CHESTER, PA.

The obverse and reverse scenes are the work of Joyce Ann Aspen, a recognized local artist.

A set of two medals — in frosted proof .999 silver edgemarked and numbered, and uncirculated antiqued bronze — in a presentation case is priced at $45.00 postpaid. Individual bronze medals are available for $5.00 each, postpaid. Orders should be sent to the West Chester Coin Club at P.O. Box 818, West Chester, PA 19380.

MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR GREATEST TOKEN ISSUE DIES

by Charles V. Kappen

Glade Wayne Miller, the man responsible for what probably was the largest token issue in the United States, died 28 October 1991 at Eureka Springs, Arkansas. He was three months short of his 86th birthday.

The writer attended funeral services, which were conducted at Nelson's Chapel of the Hills in Eureka Springs by his brother, the Rev. Robert B. Kappen, and the Rev. Joe Hammond. Interment was 1 November in the Eureka Springs Cemetery.

As a young man Glade was a salesman for the Berryville Wholesale Grocer Company. His territory was the small resort city of Eureka Springs. With another salesman, Eagle Thomas, he formed a firm called "Eagle & Glade." The partners were active in purchases and sales of real estate, and in other enterprises.

In the 1930s Glade also established Miller's Five and Ten Cent Store. A radio sales and services shop, a plumbing and electrical shop, and a furniture and appliances store soon followed. Glade's Home Appliances was established at 46 Spring Street in 1939, and he quit the wholesale company in 1940 to spend more time with his businesses. Two of his shops, the radio and the plumbing stores, published post cards which are now collectors' items.

In 1925 Glade was married to Bernardine Hicks, a classmate of the writer. Her father, Gip Hicks, owned a restaurant in Eureka Springs, in the Ellis-Rosewater building.

Although Glade once told the writer that use of the tokens began in 1947, his widow and his brother, Paul Miller, insist that the time was in the late 1930s. Both said he used the tokens "for a few years" before his entry into the U.S. Army in 1942 (he served until 1945). Glade once told the writer that he had ordered and received 25,000 of his tokens. He termed their use a success.

Two other Arkansas merchants, the Sample Store of Bentonville, and Rogers and W. R. Evans of Dumas, used tokens with the same reverse as is found on Glade's tokens. L. J. Ely of Bentonville, owner of the Sample Store, told the writer that he began use of the tokens in 1947 to increase sales volume, with "very successful" results. His tokens were discontinued in 1954, and Ely retired two years later. His cardboard tokens are much scarcer than his aluminum ones. The writer knows of but a single specimen of the Dumas, Arkansas token, and nothing of its history.

BREWERY TOKENS OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA CATALOGED

The Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society has released the second in a series of catalogs relating to specific types of exonumia emanating from Allegheny County. Compiled by Gerald S. Porter the work, which is titled Brewing Companies — Brewery Tokens, provides a comprehensive listing of all known brewery tokens from Pittsburgh and the surrounding area of Pennsylvania.

Following a short introductory section, more than two hundred tokens are cataloged in alphabetical order. An exact obverse and reverse description of each piece, plus its metal, size, and shape, is given. A large number of tokens are illustrated with clear "rubbings that are line drawn."

An appendix to the catalog gives a list of "selected breweries within Allegheny County, including Pittsburgh." The list provides addresses for many of the breweries, and the dates they were in operation. A second appendix is an alphabetical index to token wording.

The 33 page, 8½x11 inch format catalog, which is bound with clear plastic covers, is modestly priced at $6.00 postpaid. To order, send a check payable to Western Pennsylvania Numismatic Society to: Rodger Hershey, c/o W.P.N.S., P.O. Box 23404, Pittsburgh, PA 15222-9998.

ELONGATED CENT COMMEMORATES TOWN CENTENNIAL

An elongated cent has been produced to mark the centennial of the Village of Brookfield, Illinois. The design features the Grossdale train station, with the name GROSSDALE on its front. The station is flanked by the dates 1893 and 1993. Above the building is Brookfield, Illinois, and Centennial is below.

The train station was the first building erected in the village by developer Samuel Eberly Gross. He would bring prospective buyers out from Chicago on Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy Railroad excursion trains to be entertained, fed, and shown lots and houses. The village, located about fifteen miles west of downtown Chicago, was originally named Grossdale.

Today the station, which houses the Brookfield Historical Society museum, is on the National Register of Historic Places. The elongated cents are being sold by the society to help raise funds to restore the station to its Victorian glory. Raymond Dillard of Fenton, Michigan produced seven hundred and fifty of the cents. They may be ordered by sending 50 cents each, plus a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to the Brookfield Historical Society, P.O. Box 342, Brookfield, IL 60513.

WORLD WAR TWO GUADALCANAL COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL ISSUED

The 50th anniversary of the U.S. Marines' World War II landing on Guadalcanal is being saluted by the Solomon Islands government with an official decoration, issued to coincide with the anniversary date of the first landing on Red Beach, 7 August 1942. The island of Guadalcanal is in the Solomon Islands in the South Pacific which today is an independent member of the British Commonwealth.

A Solomons spokesman announced that the government will present the ribbon-and-medal decoration to Solomon Islanders who are survivors of the campaign, as well as to current serving members of the Solomon Islands Disciplined Forces, police and para-military force, and to prominent citizens. It is also being made available to U.S. Marine Corps veterans of World War II and to their next of kin, and to United States Army, Navy, and Coast Guard veterans who participated in the fighting in or near Guadalcanal during 1942 and 1943.

The full-sized decoration is suspended from a colorful seven-striped ribbon, pinback, and metal hanger. The round medal, which measures 36 millimeters in diameter, was struck in Australia of rhodium-plated brass. Only U.S. Guadalcanal veterans of any service, U.S. Marine veterans of World War II, or their next of kin may purchase the decoration, which costs $27.50 postpaid, insured.

A miniature decoration for wear on civilian clothing, veterans' organization caps, etc., is also available at $7.50 if ordered with the full-size decoration, or for $10 postpaid if ordered separately. The same medallion design offered on the Solomon Islands decoration is also being made available in a 36mm red bronze commemorative medal which may be purchased by any interested person for $10 postpaid.

The medal's reverse depicts an armed Marine kneeling on a map of Guadalcanal, the U.S. Marine Corps emblem above him, and the legend 50TH ANNIVERSARY GUADALCANAL LANDING / 7TH AUGUST 1992. The obverse exhibits the crested arms of the Solomon Islands supported by a crocodile and shark and with the scroll motto TO LEAD IS TO SERVE. The inscription below reads SOLOMON ISLANDS.

Residents of the U.S. and its possessions may order the decorations or medal direct from Christie's Pty. Ltd., P.O. Box 172, Iola, Wisconsin 54945. Personal check, money order, or banker's draft payable to Christie's are acceptable; credit cards cannot be accepted. A three-week delay in delivery is expected on all U.S. orders. Included in the cost of all decorations and medals is a $2 per unit royalty to the Solomons government.

Specially framed decoration pairs with the veteran's name inscribed on a plate are obtainable by special order. Details are available on request.

AN INTERESTING SWISS COUNTERSTAMP

by Q. David Bowers

Recently I received from Donald Nigro a very interesting item — an 1878 Swiss silver half franc piece, countermarked on the obverse "MF 1840" and a cross superimposed with an "S," all within a shield outline. The stamp is that of Mermod Freres, famous music box makers of St. Croix (hence the S on the cross), Switzerland, founded in 1840 and active through the end of the century. This stamp was normally used on music combs and metallic components of the music box, not on coins. Perhaps this Swiss piece was counterstamped in an idle moment. Whatever its purpose, it is the only one I have ever seen on a coin.

MAVERICKS

The recently-reprinted 1908 Street Directory of the Principal Cities of the United States is a wonderful tool to use in attributing mavericks. It lists street names with a range of street numbers which were in use in 1908, and then gives the city which used that combination. The original intent was to direct incorrectly, illegibly, or incompletely addressed letters, but it can now be used to direct research for the attribution of a maverick. Remember that seldom can a street name and number alone be used to positively attribute a maverick, but this information can point a researcher to city directories and other tools which can. Many of the attributions below resulted from using this invaluable aid to research mavericks which carry a street name.

Another set of tools which are becoming easier to use are the genealogical resources available in many libraries. In particular, the Family History Centers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (the Mormons), now generally have a computer in each local library with CD-ROM databases which can be easily accessed by individual name. The two most useful of these databases for maverick attribution are the Ancestral File (AF) and the International Genealogical Index (IGI). The AF is a collection of thousands of family trees with birth, marriage, and death dates and locations. It also provides the name and address of the genealogist who submitted the information. The IGI is a collection of millions of "events," primarily births and marriages, and yields the location where the event occurred. Armed with information from either or both of these databases, the maverick researcher can focus on a specific location for further research.

A third database on CD-ROM at the Family History Centers is the Social Security Death Index. This is a listing of individuals who held Social Security numbers and who died between roughly 1962 and 1989. This index will be expanding in the future to include deaths from about 1937 to date, and will become more useful to the researcher.

You can locate a Family History Center by contacting an LDS Church near you. They are located throughout the world, but the highest concentration is in the Intermountain West. They are staffed by volunteers and are open to the public. You may also find the hobby of genealogy itself to be of much interest.

NEW LISTINGS

There is a fairly large backlog of mavericks waiting their turn to be published in this column, so please be patient when submitting yours. To have mavericks listed, mail them (not more than 25 at a time) to the Maverick Editor at the address below. Rubbings do not reproduce adequately, so please send me the actual tokens to photograph. Package them securely, and please include a check to cover return postage and insurance.

TAMS Slide Programs

TAMS now has five slide programs for free loan for TAMS members. Each program is shipped in a Kodak "carousel" with the slides in place, along with a typed narrative. Several programs also include a taped (uncued) narrative.

Programs include "The Case of the Misplaced Soda Token," a general token and medal program (heavy in Civil War), Hard Times Tokens, Civil War storecards and Civil War patriotics. It is suggested that the borrower arrange to have a Kodak Carousel projector before requesting any of these programs.

TAMS also has a repeating program and self-contained Caramate projector especially designed for use at coin or collectible shows.

When returning any program, at borrower's expense, the member is requested to enclose a check for the original shipping charge. Inquiries and requests (please write at least three weeks prior to scheduled showing including your street address) may be sent to:

INFORMATION FOR ADVERTISERS

Advertising Restrictions

All advertisers must subscribe to the TAMS code of ethical standards. The editor is vested with the right to reject any offered advertising which he feels is not in keeping with the best objectives of TAMS. All advertisers must supply their own cuts or art work, unless other arrangements are made. All ads are priced on a CASH IN ADVANCE basis. Further information regarding advertising is available by writing to the editor.

Classified Advertising

Classified ads, up to a maximum limitation of 25 words, are free to all members. Only one free ad may be submitted by each member per issue. All free ads must be re-submitted each issue...no run 'til further notice ads allowed. Ads larger than 25 words are also accepted, providing the additional words are remitted for at the standing rate of 10-cents per word, per insertion.

Mail Bid Ads

It is recommended that closing dates in mail ads be set six weeks following the listed issue date in which it is to be inserted. While the Token and Medal Society endeavors to place issues in the hands of its members no later than two or three weeks following the issue date, it assumes no responsibility to do so. All mail bids must include any rules that apply to the sale being held. The term "usual rules" is not acceptable.

Attention Authors

Authors contemplating submitting articles to be published in the TAMS Journal and who have access to a computer are urged to submit text on a 5¼ "floppie" disk in ASCII code compatible with the IBM machines.

Addendum to Advertising Policy

We are experimenting with an additional service to our advertisers. TAMS will offer the opportunity for advertisers to insert a loose flyer into future mailings. For a flat fee of $100 per issue, TAMS will insert your pre-printed 8 ½ x 11 flyer into the mailing. It must be delivered to the publisher no less than 10 days before the scheduled mailing of the Journal (February 1, April 1, etc.).

The flyer may be smaller of course and it may be printed on both sides. TAMS will print your flyer locally on your camera-ready copy if you prefer. In this event, it must be in the publisher's hands 14 days before the scheduled mailing. The advertiser will be billed for actual printing costs.

Please call the publisher regarding copy which needs to be typeset. Faxing may be done. The advertiser will be billed for any additional costs. Please call regarding a multiple page flyer or any other questions you may have (517-423-8951).

Advertisers Note!

All advertisers are reminded to send all classified and display ads directly to the TAMS Journal Editor.

Publication Deadlines

In order to achieve the timely mailing of the TAMS Journal on the first day of the month which is on the cover of the Journal, advertisers are reminded to have all ad copy in the editor's hands at least eight weeks before the issue date: June 1 for the August 1 issue, and so on. Classified ads need to be submitted by this date also.

The TAMS Journal's preferred postage rates are in jeopardy if we cannot stay on schedule. Advertisers can help by preparing and submitting ads in advance of these deadlines.

PLEASE. . .

When you move, send the Secretary your change of address as soon as possible. Journals sent to old addresses are expensive — we must pay to have them returned, and then spend a minimum of 88¢ to mail them to the members' current addresses. This becomes quite expensive when we have at least a dozen or more for each issue!

SASE means Self Addressed Stamped Envelope. Send an SASE when requesting information from a dealer or another collector.

Wanted:

Dental Tokens: advertising dentists or dental products, such as toothpaste — any country.

Dental Advertising Pocket Mirrors: advertising dentists or dental products — any country.

Cachou Boxes: breath perfume containers made of brass, cardboard, lithographed tin, etc. See TAMS Journal article February 1990 pages 6-17.

Advertising (facsimile) Bank Notes: any subject, but especially need patent medicine ads and dental ads.

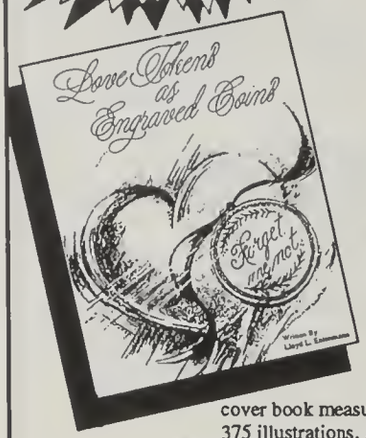
THE FIRST BOOK EVER WRITTEN ON LOVE TOKENS!



Travel back to a time when people expressed their inner most feelings by engraving coins as a token of their love.

This book, the result of almost 2 years of extensive research is filled with the history of Love Tokens. It discusses in detail their English as well as American history. The book explains how it was done and how to distinguish modern machine engraving from the art of hand engraving.

This fact filled, 250 page, soft cover book measures 8 3/8" x 10 7/8" and includes 375 illustrations. A MUST for every collector and anyone interested in engraved coins. It may be purchased directly from the Author for $55.00 plus $3.00 shipping and handling by filling out the coupon below.

Send check for $58.00 (including shipping & handling) to:

MERCHANT TOKENS OF HARD RUBBER AND SIMILAR COMPOSITIONS

by David E. Schenkman

Merchant tokens struck in hard rubber, and those manufactured in celluloid, fibre, and other non-metallic compositions from the 1860s to the early 1900s, comprise a series about which little is known and even less has been written. Finally these fascinating tokens have been cataloged in one volume

Printed in large format with a high quality cloth binding, the 208 page book lists nearly eight hundred tokens, issued by merchants from thirty-four states plus Washington, D.C. and Indian Territory. A comprehensive introductory section includes a wealth of information on the tokens and their manufacturers. The extensively annotated and profusely illustrated catalog is arranged in alphabetical order by city and state. There is a price guide, cross reference, and a complete index.

Order now! The introductory price of $49.50 plus $2.25 shipping (Maryland residents must add $2.47 sales tax) is good only until 1 December 1992, at which time it will increase to $57.50. A specially bound edition, strictly limited to 25 numbered and signed copies, is available for $85.00 ($100.00 after 1 December).

COUNTERSTAMPED

LARGE CENTS WANTED!

For my personal collection (which I have been forming since 1955) I desire large cents 1793-1857, any grade, counterstamped with advertisements, merchants' names, political slogans (such as VOTE THE LAND FREE), Washington/Lafayette portraits, etc. Also want any "hallmark" type punches in which a name appears in raised letters within a rectangular punch.

In addition to large cents, I desire the following counterstamps on ANY coins: VOTE THE LAND FREE, Washington/Lafayette, Dr. G. G. Wilkins, Dr. Shattuck's Water Cure, USE G.G.G., and Houck's Panacea.

Please ship with your invoice, or send me a description. All correspondence answered. Thank you very much! I appreciate the many TAMS members who have helped me add to my collection over the years.

When you have rare tokens and medals for sale, there is one obvious choice:

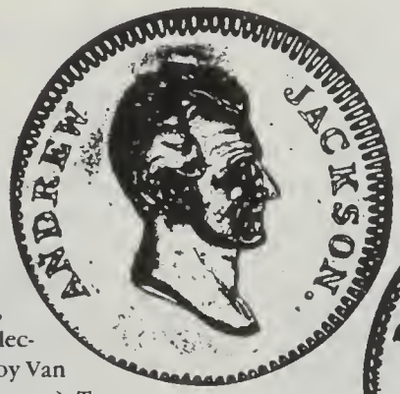
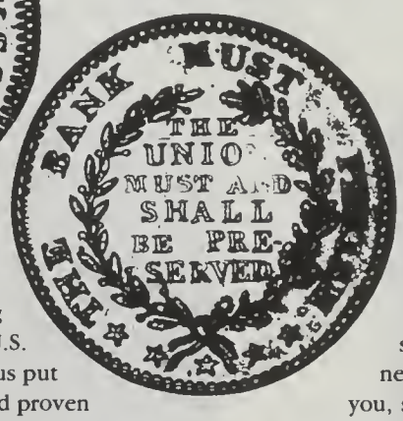
Consign them to Auctions by Bowers and Merena!

Experience

Over the years we have handled many important token and medal collections including items from the estates of F.C.C. Boyd, Virgil M. Brand, Lionel Rudduck, the Donald Miller Collection (private treaty), Robert J. Hudson, M.D. Collection, (Hard Times tokens) Roy Van Ormer Collection (counterstamps), T. Harrison and John Work Garrett Collections, the Chris Schenkel collection (Indian Peace Medals), the Michael Zeddies Collection and many others.



This magnificent specimen of the famous Low-1 Token, "Aged Head" variety, brought an incredible $16,500.00 in our March 1990 Boyd, Brand and Ryder sale.



Results

When you consign to Bowers and Merena, you consign to a firm with an unequaled record of auction success. While others endeavor to build their reputations with promises, we have already built ours with results. We offer you an unequaled record of auction success. Of the top ten world's record auction prices for individual coins, we hold eight including six of the top seven! Consider, also, that of the top four most valuable collections ever auctioned, we catalogued and auctioned three, the $25 million Garrett Collection for The Johns Hopkins University, the $20 million Norweb Collection, and the $12.4 million Eliasberg Collection of U.S. Gold Coins. Let us put our expertise and proven record of success to work for you!

Expertise

Under the personal direction of Q. David Bowers, we will expertly describe and showcase your collection to its finest advantage in one of our superbly illustrated Grand Format™ catalogues. Our unequaled worldwide clientele of industrialists, capitalists, financiers, museums, investors, and leading numismatists will compete for your material. What we have done for so many others over the years—selling over $200 million worth of coins for over 10,000 consignors—we can do for you. If net cash results are important to you, select the best auction firm in the business: Auctions by Bowers and Merena, Inc. Contact Dr. Richard A. Bagg, our Auction Director, and find out how you can realize the best possible market price for your collection of tokens and medals. (Our sales are held in New York City, Los Angeles, and Orlando on a regularly scheduled basis).

HARD TIMES TOKENS

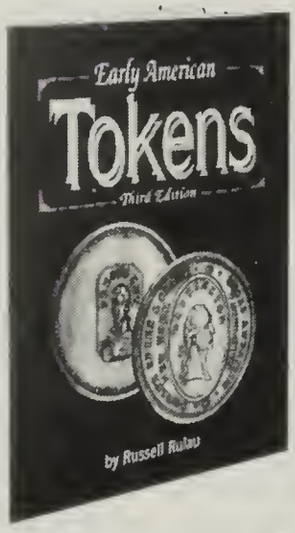
3rd Edition by Russell Rulau
76 pages. $9.95

Expanded, updated volume brimming with historical data from the "hard times" era of the Jackson and Van Buren administrations. Reorganized numbering system.

U.S. MERCHANT TOKENS, 1845-1860

3rd Edition. 192 pages. $16.95

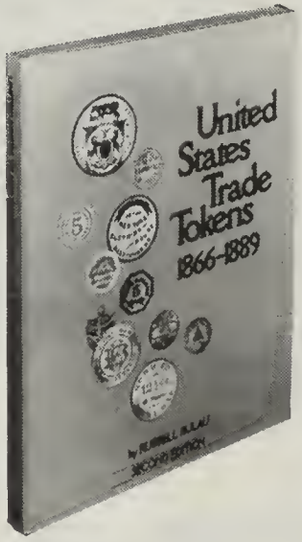
This award-winning volume describes and prices nearly every currency item and advertising token used in the U.S. from the end of the Hard Times era to the eve of the Civil War.



EARLY AMERICAN TOKENS 1700-1832

3rd Edition
By Russell Rulau
128 pages, $12.95

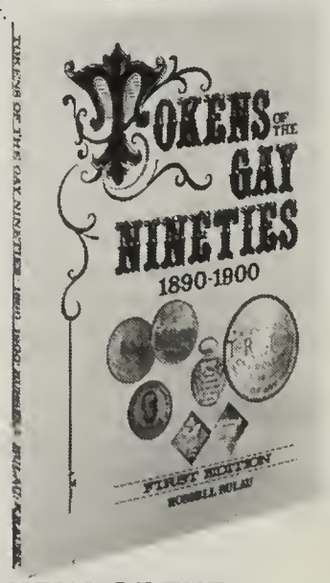
The latest edition of this complete guide reflects the recent value increases in early American tokens. Every known private token and countermark coin issued during the period 1700-1832 is catalogued and valued in up to 3 grades of preservation. Historical data included.



UNITED STATES TRADE TOKENS

2nd Edition 1866-1889
By Russell Rulau
322 pages, $17.95

Coverage for all attributed tokens between 1866-1889, arranged alphabetically by state and city. Features up-to-date market prices and special alphabetized and illustrated listings of previously unidentified American counterstamps.



TOKENS OF THE GAY NINETIES 1890-1900

1st Edition, 160 pages, $12.95

Due to the abundance of specimens from this popular era which can be found in your button box, attic, at flea markets and through the use of a metal detector, this volume appeals to nostalgia and antique buffs, as well as coin and token collectors.

Available from your favorite hobby dealer or direct from the publisher.

Shipping & Handling U.S. addresses add $2.50 per book
